Dear Canadian Federation of Medical Students,

Recognizing that med students are the physicians of tomorrow, mdBriefCase would like to invite your members to join our website (www.mdbriefcase.com).

mdBriefcase is Canada's leading online Continuing Medical Education (CME) provider. Since its inception in 2002, mdBriefCase has developed over 300 free multimedia, interactive and accredited learning programs.

By joining mdBriefCase, your students will be able to:

- Earn up to 30 M1 credits that can be used in your first 5 year CME cycle
- Access website 24/7
- Be eligible to win Aeroplan Reward Miles
- Participate in discussion forums with peers and potential mentors
- Meet other healthcare students across the country

mdBriefCase has developed an online e-challenge geared towards Canadian health professionals. We encourage student participation!

The e-challenge will open communication lines between pharmacy, nursing and medical healthcare professionals as they strive towards the common goal of providing excellent patient care.

Join now – www.mdbriefcase.com.

Your feedback will help us develop programs to better meet your needs. Please call 1-866-283-2115 or email sara.squires@mdbriefcase.

Together, we can help shape the medical education received today, and the health care system practiced tomorrow.

We look forward to hearing your feedback.

Sincerely,

Sara Squires
