

CFMS ATLANTIC REGIONAL DIRECTOR

TERMS OF REFERENCE

APPROVED BY THE CFMS BOARD OF DIRECTORS ON APRIL 8, 2019

Prepared by: Dax Bourcier, CFMS Atlantic Regional Director (2018-19)

Last Updated: Stephanie Roberts, CFMS Atlantic Regional Director (2021-22)

Background

The Canadian Federation of Medical Students (CFMS) is the representative voice of Canadian medical students to the national medical organizations, to the federal government, to the public, and to other external bodies. The CFMS represents over 8000 medical students at 15 Canadian medical schools from coast to coast. It is the mission of the CFMS to represent, support, and connect its members. The CFMS aims to communicate within its membership, as well as from its membership, to the world at large. As an ever-expanding organization, the CFMS continually strives to meet the consistent and changing needs of Canadian medical students.

Introduction

The CFMS Atlantic Regional Director is responsible for representing all CFMS member schools in the Atlantic provinces to the CFMS Board. The schools are:

- Memorial University of Newfoundland
- Dalhousie University
- Centre de Formation Médicale du Nouveau-Brunswick

The Atlantic Regional Director will chair or attend external meetings, committees, task forces and working groups as required by their regional duties and by their attaché dyad position. Where possible, they will collaborate with medical societies in the planning of Atlantic events. Finally, the Atlantic Regional Director carries out strategic duties in maintaining their fiduciary responsibilities to the CFMS.

Term

1. The position of the Atlantic Regional Director (ARD) is a one-year position elected by the CFMS General Assembly at the Spring General Meeting (SGM) to provide the newly elected ARD with an adequate transition period. The new ARD will assume office immediately following the Annual General Meeting (AGM).

Accountability

2. This position reports to the CFMS President and is accountable to the membership via the General Assembly.
3. Positions/committees that report to this position:
 - 3.1. Relevant roundtables as assigned by dyad partnership
4. The Atlantic Regional Director works in collaboration with their assigned dyad partner to connect them with their assigned Roundtable. In certain circumstances, the Atlantic Regional Director may take on other roles within their dyad portfolio. In those cases, they would report to their dyad partner.

Responsibilities

5. Connect: The Atlantic Regional Director will
 - 5.1. facilitate teleconferences between Atlantic member school students, presidents and CFMS representatives. The minutes of these meetings will be stored and reported to the CFMS Board when required.
 - 5.2. meet and discuss important matters with other Regional Directors and CFMS Board members during monthly teleconference calls, tri-annual in-person board meetings, and during the bi-annual CFMS General Meetings.
 - 5.3. fulfill their attaché dyad position in chairing the respective portfolio's roundtable to enable bilateral communication with representatives from every CFMS member school.
 - 5.4. foster strong relationships and open communication with Atlantic medical students and medical student societies in Atlantic Canada.
 - 5.5. make themselves available to connect with medical students from member schools to provide guidance and support to the best of their ability.
 - 5.6. prioritize promoting diversity and equity in all aspects of Federation business and aspire to provide a safe, supportive and inclusive community for all members, volunteers, staff and partner organizations.

6. Support: The Atlantic Regional Director will
 - 6.1. provide support and guidance for their assigned attaché dyad position and will fulfill the role of their dyad partner in their absence.
 - 6.2. execute certain operational tasks as directed by the CFMS President.
 - 6.3. support the organization of the annual Conference of Atlantic Medical Students (CoAMS).
 - 6.4. lead the organization of the AGM and/or Spring General Meeting if held in the Atlantic region.
 - 6.5. ensure adequate transition of the incoming Atlantic Regional Director following elections at the SGM.

7. Represent: The Atlantic Regional Director will
 - 7.1. serve as one of the designated spokespersons for the Federation and interact with CFMS stakeholders as directed by the President or the dyad partner.
 - 7.2. represent members on relevant stakeholder committees, task forces and working groups, or delegate this responsibility to another CFMS member as designated by the CFMS President.
 - 7.3. serve as the representative on behalf of Atlantic medical students to the CFMS Board.
