If you're registered, you will get a voter information card in the mail after the election is called. It tells you where and when you can vote. Bring this card with you, along with accepted ID, when you go to vote to make the voting process easier.

If you don't get a card, or if the information on it is wrong, you may not be registered or your voter information may not be up to date. Visit elections.ca or call us at 1-800-463-6868 to check and update your registration. You can also register when you go to vote.

To register and vote in the federal election, you must:

- be a Canadian citizen
- be at least 18 years old on election day
- prove your identity and address

Ways to vote

You can vote almost any time during the election period.
Choose the voting option that works best for you.

1 On election day

Your assigned polling station will be open for 12 hours (hours vary by province).

Check your voter information card for your voting days, locations and times.

2 On advance polling days

Your assigned polling station will be open from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. on the Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday the week before election day.

3 At any Elections Canada office across Canada

Go to any Elections Canada office before the Tuesday before election day at 6:00 p.m. You will vote using the special ballot process. After the election is called, visit elections.ca or call us to find the office nearest you.

4 By mail

Visit elections.ca or call us to find out more. Deadlines apply.

ID to vote

You have three options to prove your identity and address.

Option 1

Show one of these pieces of ID

- your driver's licence
- any other card issued by a Canadian government (federal, provincial/territorial or local) with your photo, name and current address

Option 2

or

Show two pieces of ID

Both must have your name and at least one must have your current address.

**+

Examples:

- voter information card and bank statement
- utility bill and student ID card

Don't have these? No problem!

There are other pieces of accepted ID.
Check out the full list at elections.ca.

Option 3

or

If you don't have ID

You can still vote if you declare your identity and address in writing and have someone who knows you and who is assigned to your polling station vouch for you.

The voucher must be able to prove their identity and address. A person can vouch for only one person (except in long-term care institutions).

Accessibility

All electors are assigned to polling stations for election day and advance polling days. After the election is called, make sure your assigned polling stations meet your accessibility needs by:

- checking your voter information card;
- entering your postal code into the Voter Information Service box at elections.ca; or
- calling us at 1-800-463-6868 or 1-800-361-8935 (TTY).

If you have concerns about the accessibility of your assigned polling stations, call us.

To request voting assistance in advance, including language and sign language interpretation, call the Elections Canada office in your riding before the Tuesday before election day, 6:00 p.m.
